

Marin Knitters Guild Meetings 12/10/22

- 10:45 am – meeting called to order
- Only six members were present at the meeting.
- No new members
- Elaine/new – Marin County Fair – suggested limit entries – rest on hold with fair
- Christine - raffle – won a bag at a raffle and is re-donating the bag plus three balls of Australian mohair like thread
- Stitches West – will be in Sacramento this March 2023
- Elaine – showed the new Vogue magazine, side to side cute sweaters and another magazine, Downton Abby Magazine knits.
- Lisa- mentioned new books coming out “Knit Rowan” and “Mr. Rogers Knits”
- Old Business – no work on banner, table at fair – need the banner. Lisa will reach out of Phyllis; some squares may need to be reknitted or see what needs to be done. In January, Lisa needs to sort.
- Treasurer – Christine said 3,240 total with January to June rent paid in full.
- Holiday potluck – Maybe in January if weather holds up. There are tables here to use.
- Next month – Sit and Knit
- More yarn has been donated to the guild. We will go through it, again!
- Show and tell: members who were present shared their projects.
